FALL 2024

It's good to be home

A star is born

Nothing makes your home more festive than these delightful mother-of-pearl stars. Combine the different sizes and hang them cheerfully over the table or in front of the window. Success guaranteed.

Beautiful & nostalgic

Both beautifully polished and nostalgic. This paperweight has both. Besides being functional, it is above all a beautiful object. It feels at home on a table, in a cupboard, between candles or on top of a nice book.

Soft seat

The basis of the capsule collection are the leather poufs. Both the round versions with the fringes and this braided version on which you can sit comfortably in different ways. An asset for the living room.

Mother-of-pearl

And my personal favourites, the pearl-encrusted boxes. Ideal for storing candles, tea lights and, for example, cards or dice games.

Perfect addition

A perfect addition to the basic collection; this slender beautiful ceramic vase. Available in egg white, flax and black, in two sizes. This completes any interior, and that is exactly what the vtwonen accessory collections are all about.

The great thing about the introduction of a capsule collections is that every time, you can create a new image in the shop or on the website. And the nice thing is that all collections fit together perfectly, which makes creating room for new collections a thing of the past. Part of a better future, right?!
